About KAZOOcon

Get involved with KAZOOcon!

We are excited to invite you to participate in our 5th annual KAZOOcon conference! We have consistently been growing each year and are excited about our biggest KAZOOcon yet, with a shiny new location in sunny San Diego.

Each year, KAZOOcon brings together developers, managed service and internet providers, carriers and telecom evangelists to shape the future of communications, discuss evolving technologies and share best practices to help better the telecom community. KAZOOcon is inspired by KAZOO, 2600Hz's advanced carrier grade UCaaS solution, designed to scale effortlessly, with open APIs and a suite of pre-built applications and features for resellers to take advantage of immediately -- all packaged in a modern user interface. 2600Hz's revolutionary platform lets you do business your way, ultimately empowering resellers to customize every part of their UCaaS solution, including pricing, branding, customer offerings and more.

As a KAZOOcon attendee, you will get to hear the latest ideas from telecom pioneers, network with a dynamic group of attendees and be in on the bleeding-edge of telecom and mobile technology development. Attending KAZOOcon gives you early access to the 2600Hz roadmap announcement, as well as a chance to give your input on where the industry is going and what you want to see from KAZOO. KAZOOcon enables members of the telecom community to engage in hands-on experiences focused around distributed communication networks. Since our last KAZOOcon, we've had several numerous game changing advancements, and we are excited to set your goals and expectation for the year to come!

Last year's event sold out of tickets and inspired amazing feedback surrounding informational business and engineering workshops, a dynamic afterparty and inspiring speakers. This year, we plan to have all that and more! Join us on our mission to simplify and open the cryptic black box of telecom at KAZOOcon 2018.
